BRINGING HOPE TO CHILDREN
EDMONTON'S GIFT TO SICHUAN—A NEW SCHOOL

Edmonton's Chinese Community is holding a media conference to announce the kick off of a fund raising initiative with a Charity Concert on July 26 to help build a new school in Sichuan Province.

Michael Phair, chair of the event will be joined by Florence Yeung and Robin Hao from the Chinese Community with Art Zhang of the Edmonton Chinese Arts Society to highlight the China Quake Relief Charity Concert at the media conference.

“Raising funds for a new school is a gift to the children and people of Sichuan that brings hope for the future and will be long remembered. As chair I urge all Edmontonians to attend the Charity Concert on Thursday July 26 at the Jubilee” said Michael Phair.

The concert on July 26 at the Jubilee Auditorium will feature many Edmonton Artists. The recent earthquake in the Sichuan Province of China destroyed over 6900 schools.
